

Wednesday Evening Bible Study

By: David Burruss

A young Christian declined a date to the movies, opting instead to go to Wednesday night Bible study. Why? Because he believed that doing this was the right thing to do.

After entering the church building, he searched for his Sunday morning Bible class instructor, but he wasn't there. He looked around for a few more recognizable faces, but they were nowhere to be found. Then he noticed that the song leader from Sunday morning was absent and that many of his buddies were also absent. In comparison to Sunday mornings, there was a significantly less turnout.

As he was leaving, he thought, "I guess I'll go to the movies next time." The significance of seeing each other at services is difficult to measure. Not only do our souls need it, but we also need to be there for one another.

Your presence at services says:

- I want to learn more about the bible and grow as a Christian.
- I may be busy, but God comes first.
- Christ is important to me.
- I want this church to do well.
- I am interested!
- Remember what you do speaks louder than what you say!

So, let me ask, how is your Wednesday night attendance? What does it actually say to others? If you haven't been coming, then start this week!

Hebrews 10:24-25 - And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

Remember we are members of one another.
